Several old and modern Christmas hymns will be sung by the Methodist choir, directed by Professor Thompson, who will himself be heard in an organ solo following the processional. Italian and German pastorales will be played by the university woodwind quartet under the direction of Prof. F. P. Inglis. Its members are Mildred Small, Josef Oszuk, Will Hildebrand, and Professor Inglis.

Other features on the program are vocal solos by Miss Margaret Dennis and numbers by the men's and women's choruses. Marion Wilson and Max Wilson will sing solo parts in the male chorus offering.

The program will open with the processional "Winter with its Ice and Snow" a Spanish carol and "Tis the Time for Mirth" by Sabaly both to be sung by the choir. "Gesu Bambino" by You will then be played by Professor Thompson, followed by "A Ballad of St. Stephen" (words Old English) by Mackinnon sung by the men's chorus.

Miss Dennis will next sing "Sleep, Holy Babe" by McColin, with the woodwind quartet continuing the program with a Pastoral by Scarlatti. The choir will then give a modern carol, "O, the Holly" also by Mackinnon, and the women's chorus will sing a ballad with the words in Old English, "Ballad of the Stork" by Thompson.

The woodwind quartet will render their second number, "Annoyed from Quintet" by Poester, followed by "Deck the Hall" a Welsh carol sung by the choir. The program will conclude with "Sleep, My Jesus, Sleep," an Old Dutch carol by the choir with obbligatoes for violin, cello, and piano.

RELINQUISHES CLAIM TO THRONE OF ROUMANIA
BUCHAREST, Roumania, Dec. 12, (UP)—Prince Nicholas of Roumania relinquished his rights as a member of the royal family today rather than renounce his bride, Lucia Deletj, a commoner.

The prince sent a letter to his brother, King Carol, relinquishing his royal rights and his military titles.

The king did not reply to the letter immediately. Carol threatened Nicholas with exile and with suspension of his income unless he abandoned his bride. The marriage was annulled by the superior court on the grounds that the official who performed the ceremony was not qualified to do so. It was denied officially that the court forced Nicholas to give up his royal rights.

LEAVENWORTH PRISON BREAK PROBE OPENS

THREE LIFERS KILLED; THREE CAPTURED IN DARING ESCAPE
PLOT FRIDAY

WARDEN BADLY WOUNDED

Federal Penitentiary Official Shot In Shoulder By Convicts Who Kidnaped Him In Break

FEDERAL PENITENTIARY, Leavenworth, Kan., Dec. 12, (UP)—A rigid search to determine how six desperate convicts obtained weapons used in their murderous and futile break for freedom was begun today as extra guards with machine guns and riot guns patrolled the stone walls of this prison.

Three convicts, comrades who entered prison together, died in an apparent triple suicide pact as possemen closed on them.

They were George Curtis, Grover Durrill and Will Green, all serving 25 year terms from Oklahoma City for mail robbery. Their three companions, Tom Underwood, Duluth mail bandit; Charles Berta, San Francisco mail robber, and Stanley Browning, Fargo, N. D. bank robber, were in solitary confinement. A seventh convict, Earl Thayer, Oklahoma City, still was at liberty. Thayer, who was not a member of the group, escaped during confusion after the break.

Thomas B. White, grim, tight-lipped 50 year old warden, faced possible amputation of his left arm. His shoulder was mangled by shotgun slugs, fired by Green when the prison head risked his life to save an 18 year old girl after he had been kidnaped from his office by the criminals. Two prison guards, Capt. James Galvin and Irvin W. Mooney, were slightly wounded.

Machine gun muzzles glowered down from the top of the four high walls. Guards were heavily armed with riot guns. Work went on as usual in the workshops and factories. Piece by piece, a composite picture of the break was brought together by E. H. Eckholdt, secretary to the warden—a picture of six desperate men determined to risk all in an attempt to gain freedom. For six hours, these criminals terrorized the countryside. They kidnaped three persons, forced their way into the home of an aged farmer, Emerson C. Salisbury, 73, used his house as a fort, and stole two automobiles.

"The break, so well planned that the convicts knew every step that curved at 9 o'clock yesterday right in Warden White's own office," Eckholdt said. "White, three prison clerks and myself found ourselves face to face with the criminals' revolvers and shotguns. We were forced to accompany them right through the prison main gates to the highway, almost 500 yards away from the wall."

The warden was forced to go with the six desperadoes as they commandeered a passing car and headed for the country.

The penitentiary burst into action. Alarms were sounded. The 300 odd prisoners set up a clamor. Two companies of infantrymen went from the nearby camp to aid the search for the escaped convicts.

The men made their way over muddy roads to the farm home of Joseph Gates, about three miles southwest of Leavenworth where their automobile stalled in a ditch. They entered the house and kidnaped Gates' 18 year old married daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Gates Phillips, and his young son. Outside the house, they decided to divide. Three men went on foot over a cornfield, where they later were captured.

The three ringleaders of the plot, Curtis, Durrill and Green, stayed with White and Mrs. Phillips. They forced four Leavenworth youths from a small coupe and started away. Mrs. Phillips, however, ran down the road, screaming hysterically. White fearing the girl would be shot, grappled with Green. Green wounded him in the shoulder. The criminals abandoned the warden at this point.

The three criminals, pursuing possemen close at hand, went six miles farther to Salisbury's home. They forced their way in and started firing on arriving troopers and guards. Salisbury escaped to safety by climbing through a window.

For almost an hour, the beleaguered convicts exchanged shots with possemen who surrounded the house. Then four guards rushed the door. In an upstairs room, the three men were found dead.

"Green, seeing the game was up, shot and killed Curtis and Durrill and then took his own life," said Governor Sexton, of Leavenworth county, after an inquest.

"Curtis and Derrill had been shot through the right ear. A wound showing powder burns, was in Green's head about an inch above his ear. We found a gun grasped in Green's right hand."

"We found a small fracture of the skull above Green's eye. It probably was caused by a bullet wound, received when he engaged a prison guard in a gun battle along the road."

The bodies will be held here pending funeral arrangements.

Warden White, confined to the Cushing hospital, was kept isolated today by federal operatives. Physicians said he was making "as good progress as could be expected."

Posses, aided by bloodhounds, continued to search for Thayer.

The investigation was being conducted in secret.

WAGE SLASH CONFERENCE AT CHICAGO

RAILROAD OFFICIALS AND EM-PLOYEES OPEN NEGOTIATIONS
ON SATURDAY

MANY WORKERS ARE INVOLVED

Wage Reduction And Relief For Jobless And Part Time Railroaders
Aim of Meeting

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 (UP)—Early and amicable negotiations of a voluntary 10 per cent wage cut by railroad union employees and relief for jobless and part-time workers was sought today through a joint conference of carrier executives and union heads.

Warning was given, however, of difficulties which may beset the conference procedure suggested by representatives of all the railway labor unions in behalf of 1,500,000 organized workers.

President Daniel Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad immediately expressed optimism of "an early and satisfactory understanding."

He called a conference early next week of all railroad presidents to act on the union proposal.

Meanwhile the railway started a vote of their membership to delegate to executives full power to negotiate an agreement with a similar committee of railroad heads.

As passed unanimously by the union leaders who have been conferring for a week, the procedure predicated joint consideration of the proposed wage reduction and unemployment relief measures.

The unions asked appointment of a committee of rail executives to confer and "negotiate to a conclusion" an agreement.

The joining of the wage cut demand with the union request for unemployment measures was said by the executives to be the most controversial feature of the arrangement.

Expectation was that the organized labor groups would attempt to bargain with the carrier committee for relief for approximately 500,000 unemployed trainmen in return for a wage reduction.

A FOREIGNER'S COMMENT

Copies of the "Electric Refrigeration News" edited by one George F. Taubeneck of Detroit, have been received here. Its editorial policy is to encourage development of art, to promote ethical practices in business, to foster friendly relations, etc.

This sheet does everything else but what its editor, who ever and what ever his nationality is, expects it to do, so far as Greencastle is concerned. An item by the "Editor" about Greencastle says:

"The Hoosier village spirit reposes in its own body at Greencastle. 'Overhanging rows of old shade trees, rolling dirt streets, cinder paths interrupted by short stretches of brick sidewalk, sagging frame dwellings, cows tethered in backyards, woodsheds, a public square, and bedraggled store fronts which have the appearance of perpetual rainy weather—Greencastle in tabloid."

"DePauw university, a mellow old school with an admixture of doddering old buildings and efficient new structures, of puttering relics of classical seminars and young educators on the make, is Greencastle's chief institution and main topic of conversation."

"Kampus-kut clothes, unbecoming rites and rowdism—which have disappeared from the campuses of larger universities, thanks to the ridiculing of Hollywood—still thrive in Greencastle."

Why anyone would make such a statement against our city is a mystery. We wonder how he expects to sell us electric refrigerators, or to even come to Greencastle if we know he is here, after making such insulting remarks about the best city in the world, which includes Detroit.

We would suggest that Mr. Taubeneck come to Greencastle some time and we will show him a modern city, with paved streets, modern business houses, some of the finest homes he ever saw, so far as a "home" goes, some of them even have electric refrigerators, and we will show him one of the highest rated universities, DePauw, in the United States. We cordially invite this "big city guy" to come out to Greencastle and see some real American citizens.

The kindest thing we can say about this fellow is that he is either grossly ignorant or is just a plain, d--- liar.

CORN SCHOOL ENDS ANNUAL CO. CORN SHOW

WORLD'S CHAMPION CORN DIS-PLAYED IN FIRST NATIONAL BANK DURING DAY

A corn school conducted in the assembly room of the court house by Dr. C. T. Gregory and Prof. M. O. Pence of Purdue university, assisted by county agent E. W. Baker, was a closing feature Saturday of the Putnam County corn show, held the past three days by the First National bank.

The Purdue specialists illustrated their talks with slides to point out better methods of corn production to the crowd of farmers who attended the school.

At the First National bank the world's champion ten ears of white corn which won for Eddie Lux, of Shelbyville, the title of international corn king at the recent Chicago Exposition, were on display in a glass case. Mr. Lux also was present to talk over corn production with local farmers.

As an added feature of the corn school Mr. Lux made a short talk there in the afternoon on methods used to produce the world's champion corn.

Those in charge of the corn show and school were well pleased with the interest shown by farmers.

CAROLERS TO SING AT CHURCH

"The Carolers" under the direction of Prof. Kenneth Umfleet will sing a group of Christmas carols at the union service in the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening at 7:30. This new organization is in much demand as the holiday season approaches and their numbers ought to be heard by a large congregation of those who are interested in the boys and girls of the community. The Rev. B. H. Bruner will have an appropriate message on: "The Road to Christmas."

At the morning service at 10:35, the choir with Miss Ardith Moore as soloist will be led in a Christmas music program by Miss Kate Hammond, accompanied by Robert Mitchener, organist. There should be a large attendance at this service to participate in the beautiful Christmas music and in appreciation of the faithfulness of those who lead the church in the ministry of song. The pastor will have for his Advent sermon theme: "Crushed Seeds."

WELFARE AIMS SET FORTH IN LETTER TODAY

COUNCIL ORGANIZED TO CLAR-IFY LOCAL RELIEF WORK
THIS WINTER

UNITED COOPERATION ASKED

Reports On Finances And Progress
Of Council To Be Matter
Of Public Record

The following letter explaining the aims and purposes of the local Welfare Council was received by The Banner this morning:

Greencastle, Indiana
December 12, 1931

To Churches, Patriotic, Charitable and Fraternal Organizations and all Civic, Social and Educational Clubs and Individuals.

Ladies and Gentlemen:
The Greencastle Welfare Council of Greencastle has been formed to unify and clarify the local relief work, in such a way as to see that all needy people are given proper help and at the same time to avoid giving more than necessary in one place while others just as needy may be neglected.

The welfare council appeals to all organizations and individuals for hearty support in this unification plan. It is not the purpose of the welfare council to take the place of nor substitute for any existing charity organization. It is to help and to encourage such work and to seek out the needy cases not covered by it. Those organizations which have done such good work heretofore in raising money and dispensing relief should continue to do so according to their own plan and customs, excepting that the welfare council should be kept informed of needy persons or families for which such organization will be responsible and report the amount of relief extended to each. The welfare council will extend all help possible to such organizations.

From those organizations or individuals which will contribute "donations" rather than service, the welfare council earnestly solicits money, clothing and food in any quantities, to be sent or delivered to its office. Such "donations" will be receipted for and strictly accounted for and will be dispensed to the needy not already taken care of or will be given to existing charity organizations and will be accounted for by them.

In order to bring about the best results, it will be necessary for each organization or individual to inform the welfare council without delay, the kind of assistance they will promise to render, during the next six months, as follows:

- (1) Raising or contributing funds.
- (2) Raising or contributing supplies or food.
- (3) Services (investigation, distribution, etc.)
- (4) Total relief (comprising the above three items in regard to specified cases).

The office of the welfare council will be located in Room 6 Central Bank Building, and office hours will be from 8 a. m. to 10 a. m. every day except Sunday. The telephone number is 79-L and is now listed in the name of "Faultless Castings Company." All checks should be made payable to "Greencastle Welfare Council" and sent or delivered at above address.

The welfare council will keep accurate accounts so far as possible and will publish reports from time to time giving full credit to all those organizations or individuals who have contributed in any way to the work.

C. C. Gautier, Mrs. Gray Potter, Harry Wells, Floyd Miller, Committee.

THE WEATHER

Rain south and rain or snow north portion beginning late tonight or Sunday; not much change in temperature.

NO PAID SECRETARY

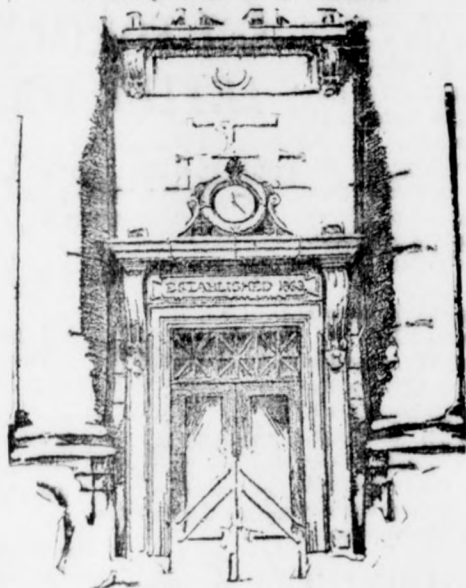

It has been reported that the local charity organizations are paying a secretary for the work being done. This is not correct. No one, either the secretary nor any member of any of the committees is receiving pay for the work they are doing.

Each is devoting many hours a day to the work and it is all being done at no cost to anyone. This insures every cent that is contributed going towards helping some deserving person.

AT THE GRANADA

Joe E. Brown, coming Sunday to the Granada theater in "Local Boy Makes Good," his latest First National starring vehicle, has become such an institution in every town, big and little—that his coming is hailed almost as if he were actually one of the local boys.

Joe Brown has never been seen in just the type of comedy exemplified in "Local Boy Makes Good." This picture, based on a very human play by J. C. and Elliott Nugent, does not depend upon slapstick for its laughs—but on the ludicrous situations which develop out of a fevday happenings. Joe gets the laughs, but in a different way.

He plays the part of a timid college student afflicted with an inferiority complex—and a suppressed desire to be a devil with the ladies and a hero on the athletic field. If he wins, it is not without some of the most amusing complications that ever befell a fellowman.

JOHN'S VISION ON PATMOS

GOLDEN TEXT—And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not: I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead: and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

LESSON TEXT—Revelation 1:1-20.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Heavenly Home.
JUNIOR TOPIC—John's Vision of Heaven.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—John Sees the Ever-living Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Glorified Saviour.

We should be glad that the lesson committee has given us another lesson from the Book of Revelation, which contains Christ's last message to man.

I. The Preface (1:1-3).
1. The title of the book (v. 1). The Revelation (unveiling) of Jesus Christ. The revelation of Jesus Christ refers to his personal appearing in glory to judge the world and to establish his kingdom. The word "apocalypse," translated "revelation," signifies according to New Testament usage the unveiling of a person (II Thess. 1:6-10; I Pet. 1:7). The theme of the book is Christ's second coming, his personal, visible appearance in glory (v. 1, 7, 10).

2. To whom made known (v. 1, 2). To his servant John—"To show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass."

3. A benediction to those who read, hear, and keep the sayings of the book (v. 3). It must be possible to understand these sayings, or the promise is meaningless.

II. The Salutation (v. 4-8).

1. To whom (v. 4). The seven churches then existing in Asia Minor. Seven, the number of completeness, suggests a symbolism of the Church throughout her course.

2. From whom (v. 4).

a. From him which was, and is, and is to come.

b. From the seven spirits which are before the throne—the Holy Spirit in his seven-fold plenitude as set forth in Isaiah 11:2, also in the Gospel of John.

c. From Jesus Christ (vv. 5-7). While presenting Christ as the gracious Redeemer, John's prophetic eye caught the vision of the Coming One in glory, exclaiming, "Behold he cometh" (v. 7), the Alpha and Omega (v. 8).

III. The Vision of Glory (vv. 9-18).

1. The seven golden lamp stands (v. 12). These candlesticks are the churches (v. 20), thus presented because they are the light holders in this world's darkness.

2. The Son of man in the midst of the candlesticks (vv. 13-18). Christ in the midst of the churches indicates that they give forth light only when Christ is the central figure.

a. "Clothed with a garment down to the foot" (v. 13). This is a royal as well as a priestly robe (Isa. 22:21), and signifies his right to judge and to rule, as well as to offer sacrifice.

b. His head and hair white as wool (v. 14, cf. Dan. 7:19, 20). This has a twofold significance—purity and eternity.

c. Eyes as a flame of fire (v. 14). This suggests his infallible knowledge.

d. Feet like burnished brass (v. 15). This indicates that he comes as Judge and King, with irresistible power.

e. His voice as the sound of many waters (v. 16). His voice of judgment will be outside of man's control. All excuses will be swept aside by his relentless word.

f. Seven stars in his right hand (v. 16). According to verse twenty, stars mean the messengers of the churches, perhaps pastors or representatives sent forth to comfort John in his lonely exile. The minister lies in the right hand of Jesus Christ, hears his message, and speaks it out.

g. Out of his mouth was a sharp two-edged sword (v. 16). Observe that this is a mouth sword. "The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him" (John 12:48). "The word of God is sharper than any two-edged sword" (Heb. 4:12). The two edges indicate its double action, condemning the evil and approving the good and excellent.

h. His countenance was as the sun shining in his strength (v. 16). The effect of sunshine is healthful and joyous to some things, while it is death dealing to others. The manifestation of the glorified king will be hailed with delight by those who love him, and will create dismay in those who do not love him.

CEMETERY PROTEST

I read a piece in Wednesday's Banner about moving the dead in the old cemetery which sure did make me feel sad. I and many others have loved ones that have been buried there for many years. I have three little darlings that have been buried there for more than forty years. Those lots were given to the people. I think it is so sad for the loved ones to be moved from a playground for the students or for any other purpose. I feel sure everyone feels about it as I do. I am not in favor of them being moved. Let the dead rest in peace.

Christmas Spirit Prevails
At First Ward P. T. A. Meet

An atmosphere of reverence filled the dimly-lighted room while a capacity audience gathered in the auditorium of the Mary Emma Jones school on Friday evening at 7:30 for the December meeting of the Parent-Teacher association.

By the soft glow from the lighted tree and illuminated silhouettes portraying scenes from the Nativity, decorations were led by Mrs. H. R. Krehl, reading Eph. 6:1-6, followed by the P. T. A. song.

Prof. Kenneth Umfleet directed his newly organized group of "Carollers" singing three delightful numbers: "From the Starry Heavens High", "Shepherds Rejoice" and "Why Do Bells of Christmas Ring." One member of the carollers sang, very sweetly, an old Polish lullaby, accompanied by Prof. Umfleet on the piano. The musical part of the program continued by the audience singing three familiar Christmas carols.

One unexpected gesture much enjoyed by the mothers present, was the song by sixteen fathers, who, after enrolling as members of the P. T. A., gathered before the Christmas tree and sang "Joy to the World."

Rev. A. E. Monger, pastor of the local M. E. Church, was the speaker for the evening, and claimed the interested attention of everyone present as he spoke on the subject of "Parental Educational Objectives." Dr. Monger outlined what should be the objective of every parent in the educational program of their boy or girl—emphasizing that there was something much more essential than "grades".

"Education should train a boy for his life mission, for good citizenship, so that he may be enabled to make proper adjustment to community life; making possible better conditions of living, instead of matching wits with competitors in the accumulation of wealth. So shall not only our own nation but every nation in the world be a little nearer that ideal: 'Thy kingdom come on earth as it is in Heaven,'" the speaker said.

The first grade won the attendance banner. During the social hour, the hostesses served home-made candy.

The honor-guest of the evening was Mrs. A. E. Monger, wife of the speaker. A number of visitors from other schools in city were guests.

Mrs. W. W. Baker had charge of the program and read an interesting Christmas story. Twenty-one members and two guests, Mrs. Ray Fisher and Mrs. Ronald Parent were present. During the social hour the annual Christmas grab bag was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

MOCK TRIAL PROVIDES MUCH ENTERTAINMENT

A very entertaining "mock trial" was presented to an audience of more than four hundred enthusiastic persons at the Bainbridge Masonic Hall Thursday night.

The trial was a breach of promise suit between Miss Lizzie Thoolus, played by Glen Michael, and Elza Tate, in which the plaintiff asked $50,000 balm for a broken heart.

The plaintiff was represented by attorneys Clevenger, Hostetter and Steward, while Don C. Wells and Churchill Allen pleaded the case for the defendant. Judge John Sharp was master of ceremonies. Dolby Collins, Orvil Vandeleave, Omer Whitaker and Raymond Weller were the witnesses. James Curran and "Bill" Morris were sheriff and bailiff respectively.

After about two and one-half hours of questioning, pleading and oratory the jury was induced to render a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Proceeds from the entertainment will be used to scatter Christmas cheer to needy families in and near Bainbridge.

BRIDGE TOURNEY NEWS

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (UP)—Ely Culbertson's two-demand, approach-forcing system of bidding in contract bridge is getting the tar knocked out of it, if the Culbertson-Lenz match, which goes into its fifth season tonight, is a criterion.

That's not all; Culbertson's nose was almost punched during one rubber last night.

Sidney S. Lenz and Oswald Jacoby, playing their new official system, laid down a barrage of aces and kings in last night's session which came near overwhelming the Culbertsons.

When time was called at the end of the 28th rubber, Lenz and Jacoby, leading the approach-forcers by 5,650 points, were as happy as a pair of boy scouts who had just succeeded in making fire by rubbing sticks together.

Lenz was so tickled, in fact, that he pulled out a check for $250, given to him by a friend, and offered it to Culbertson at that worthy's highly advertised odds of two to one. Culbertson, who informed the press three days ago that he has $25,000 to wager at those odds on his ability to win, turned the bet down.

It was not his own money Lenz offered. Earlier in the evening he had said that Culbertson's betting activities irritated him no little, and that he will not wager a cent on the outcome.

Syncro-Mesh Shift and Free Wheeling

ONE of the biggest driving thrills in modern motoring is now available at one of the lowest prices in the automobile market. Syncro-Mesh shifting is combined with Free Wheeling in the new Chevrolet Six.

This is the first time that these two outstanding inventions have been brought together in a low-priced automobile. Syncro-Mesh is recognized as the most advanced type of transmission ever developed by engineering science. Free Wheeling is that new, up-to-date sensation which adds so much to the zest of driving. The two make a matchless combination! They bring about an entirely new kind of driving ease and car control. They give you quick, quiet shifting and complete mastery of the car, under all conditions. They enable you to do things in driving that are impossible to do in a car without both these features.

Suppose you prefer to drive in "standard" gear, without Free Wheeling. Syncro-Mesh enables you to shift from low to second, second to high, and high back to second, with uncanny speed, silence and precision. This ability is particularly desirable when descending steep hills or traveling slippery

CUBS DEFEAT VINCENNES IN HARD BATTLE

LOCAL NETTERS DOWN ALICES
BY FINAL SCORE OF
18 TO 15

TIGHT DEFENSE FEATURES

Tiger Cubs Jump Into 8 to 1 Lead in
First Quarter. Half Score
9 to 8

Greencastle's fighting Tiger Cubs broke into Hoosierdom's recognized "big time" basketball Friday evening when they met and defeated the strong Vincennes high school squad on the local gym floor by the final score of 18 to 15.

During the first quarter the Cubs ran up an 8 to 1 lead, uncovering a brilliant offensive that had the big green and white team bewildered. To crack the ice, Stone dropped in a free toss but Walker was also fouled and the score was tied at 1-1.

Hurst and McAnally after a clever bit of teamwork collected baskets in rapid order and it was 5 to 1. The Alices took time out. When play was resumed, Dawson connected and a few seconds later made good on a free throw to make the score 8 to 1 in favor of Greencastle as the quarter ended.

Seely was fouled as the second period got underway and he hit from the little black line, making it 9 to 1. Metz registered on a free shot and it was 9 to 2. Coach John Adams sent Little into the Vincennes lineup to replace Miller and the Alices held a consultation.

Ealy and Walker got loose near the foul circle for baskets and the Cubs went into a huddle. Little agitated the draperies to conclude the scoring and it was 9 to 8, Greencastle at the rest intermission.

Airtight defense featured the third quarter with Vincennes making 3 points to Greencastle's 2. It appeared from the bleachers that the Cubs had slowed up on offense and were playing cautiously. This period ended with the score knotted at 11-11.

Then came the thrilling final period which marked the only stage of the game that Vincennes led the Purple and Gray basketballers.

Glass hit from the side and Metz made good on a foul to run the count to 14-11 in favor of the visitors. The Cubs took time out.

Hurst dribbled in after some nifty passing to hit from under the basket. He was held as he shot and he made the extra point, tying the score at 14-14. A Vincennes free throw put the Alices in front with four minutes to play.

The Greencastle boys settled down and opened up with a passing game that kept the Alices on the run. Hurst, Stone, and Dawson weaved, dribbled and passed in and around the Vincennes defense with Stone collecting two beautiful close in field goals giving the Cubs the advantage at 18 to 15. During the final two minutes, the locals passed the ball among themselves and were successful in keeping it away from the Alices who were fighting desperately for an opportunity to score and the game ended with the big crowd nearly crazy as result of the excitement.

VINCENNES 15.

Wotta game! Wotta game!

We wish to commend every member of the Tiger Cub team for their splendid work in turning back the husky Vincennes squad. Outweighed nearly twenty pounds to the player, the local boys fought hard and sent the visitors home on the short end of the score.

This Vincennes outfit resembled a college team more than a high school quintet and they were plenty rough with it.

Big Jess McAnally, however, controlled the tip which was a decided factor in the Greencastle victory. Hurst, Dawson, Stone, Seely and Campbell made up in hard work what they lacked in size.

The Alices were ahead at only one stage of the game—during the opening minutes of the final quarter. John Adams' netters also fought valiantly to gain this lead, 14 to 11, only to have the Cubs come back and tie the count and then go out in front to win by a 3-point margin.

Personally we didn't think much of the officiating. When a big boy can run and almost deliberately jump on a player the size of Dawson and the referee or umpire doesn't call some kind of a foul in our estimation it's time Edmonson and the school officials began to check up on the men they've got booked to work future contests, not only here but away from home.

We believe the Cubs can also practice foul shooting to their own advantage. Three consecutive free throws were missed that we noted which would have increased the final margin during that exciting second half.

It appeared to us that the Cubs "let down" especially during the third period. After running up a 9 to 1 lead, the Vincennes boys kept driving away and the half ended 9 to 8. Of course, during the third quarter tight guarding by both teams kept down the scoring, this period ending with it anybody's ball game at 11-11. Things looked bad during the final frame with the Alices holding a 14 to 11 advantage. It was then that Hurst, Stone, Dawson and McAnally showed flashes of teamwork that carried them to the final game of the state tourney last March. These four young men used their heads and started working the ball down the floor with bewildering speed and at the same time keeping their defense well in hand. Hurst connected under the hoop and was fouled as he shot. He brought the big crowd to its feet with a toss from the charity stripe that knotted the count at 14-14. A foul on Greencastle which was made by Little put Vincennes in the lead again at 15-14. It was here that Dawson and Stone breezed down the floor exhibiting as pretty a passing game as one would see anywhere resulting in two well earned baskets by "Tucker".

With the score 18 to 15 in their favor, the Tiger Cubs then proceeded to pass the ball among themselves for the final two minutes despite desperate attempts by the green and white team to get possession of it.

Congratulations Cubs!

Metz, usually high-powered scoring ace for the Alices, was held without a field goal by the Cubs. In fact only one Vincennes player snared more than one basket against Edmonson's proteges and that was Little. He got two but had a hard time doing it.

Marion Crawley's Juniors came through in great style in the curtain raiser, defeating the junior quintet from Plainfield, 20 to 15. The local squad led 9 to 5 at the half. This speaks mighty well for the boys as the Plainfield aggregation copped championship honors in the state junior tournament last year.

MARTINSVILLE TONIGHT!

This is another tough assignment for the Tiger Cubs but they seem to thrive on keen competition.

By the way—did you notice what the Artesian City crew did to Shelbyville Friday evening? Martinsville won by the decisive count of 24 to 13. The Curtis coached team held a 9 to 3 edge at the intermission. Jackson and Coyle were outstanding for Martinsville.

Bainbridge invaded Cloverdale last night and returned home with a 22 to 15 victory. Cloverdale was ahead 12 to 11 at the half but the north Putnam quintet, led by Dickson, came back strong in the final periods to win.

Fillmore Defeats Belle Union
The Fillmore Cardinals journeyed to Belle Union where they defeated

Red Wright's long range net snipers in a overtime game, 26 to 19. The game was fast and interesting throughout with the Cardinals leading at the half, 11 to 8. With Hammond leading the scoring, Fillmore pulled away from Belle Union to lead 18 to 10 as the third quarter ended. Watson was forced from the game by the personal foul route. Then Belle Union came to life and as the final whistle blew the score was deadlocked 19 to 19.

In the overtime Fillmore outplayed Belle Union with Hammond and Brown scoring at will.

Tonight Fillmore plays Roachdale up at Roachdale.

WABASH WITHDRAWS

FROM BUCKEYE LOOP
COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 11—Denison university, one of the charter members, and Wabash college, a probationary member, resigned from the Buckeye Athletic Association here tonight.

DePauw university indicated it would follow Wabash's example and withdraw, although no definite action will be taken until late this month.

The Conference voted a provisional membership to Marshall college of Huntington, W. Va., beginning at the start of the 1932-33 basketball schedule.

Denison and Wabash believed they could not meet the competition of the Association because present scholastic requirements are too high and the student bodies too small.
